75 heritage buildings in city need urgent repairs

District Heritage Conservation Sub-Committee completes survey of 131 buildings, records findings

By S.T. Ravikumar

Mysuru, Sept. 8- The District Heritage Conservation Sub-Committee has completed the survey of 131 heritage structures within the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) limits. A report containing findings and recommendations will soon be submitted to Deputy Commissioner (DC) Dr. K.V. Rajendra. The DC also serves as the Chairman of the main District Heritage Conservation Committee.

According to sources, the report will be presented to the DC within a week. The survey reveals that between 60 and 75 buildings within the MCC boundaries are in urgent need of repairs due to their deteriorating condition.

Failure to initiate prompt repair work could pose risks to occupants, including students, professionals, researchers and Government officers.

Following the collapse of a portion of Devaraja Market, Lansdowne Building, a section of Maharani's College and the Fire Brigade Office at Saraswathipuram, the State Government tasked the District Heritage Conservation Committee of conducting a comprehensive survey. The survey involved sample collection, photographic documentation, scientific analysis and structural assessments of the extent of damage. Funding for restoration was promised upon submission of the report to the Government.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

Argument may be described as conversation pitched up to a heated and higher level with voice louder and mannerisms more conspicuous than contents and meaning of what is expressed. The momentum/tempo of expression are so brisk and strong that the real intent, content and meaning are driven to oblivion and harmony is buried beyond possible retrieval. The chief causes for an argument to set in are generally trivial and unrelated to the persons involved, like politics, religion, public administration, future possibilities and forgotten past incidents, most of which are beyond the scope and control of the arguers! Very often, arguments are used only to demonstrate the illusory wisdom of one over the other, ending the argument with a nasty triumphant laugh.

Arguing, unless focussed objectively on a topic and away from personal attributes, serves no purpose other than triggering the dormant ego and disturbing the peace of mind for a long time followed by severance of harmonious relationships. There is no winner in any argument; the so-called winner is the loser and the loser is the vanquished.

For putting an end to an argument and beginning a healthy conversation, the starting point is yourself! Change yourself instead of trying to change others. You have the choice to argue and spoil your and others' moods or opt for silence and peace. You have the choice of winning an argument or retaining a valuable friendship. Choose the latter. Always remember that you do not have to get angry and pitch your voice high to make your point. Establish and maintain eye contact and bring about a sense of love and humanity while speaking. Do not interrupt. Never insult anybody. Listen more and speak less. Vacate the scene or assume stoic silence. When we engage people in conversation, it is not necessary for every exchange of words to lead to an argument, with resultant win or lose outcome. We can stop an argument and convert it into a pleasant conversation. By staying away from arguments, you may temporarily feel that you are defeated, but the permanent gain is valuable peace of mind and tranquillity. Enjoy that bliss. — A.V.R. Rao in Deccan Herald

11,000 runners disqualified for cheating

Mexico City: 11,000 runners out of the 30,000 participants at last month's Mexico City Marathon were disqualified for cheating by cutting out sections of the 26.2-mile course.

Marathon cheating occurs at almost every major event. However, this year's Mexico City Marathon may have set a new record for the highest number of disqualifications due to suspected cheating. A whopping 11,000 runners, more than 1 out of 3 participants, were disqualified for using various means of transportation to cut out sections of the race.

An investigation began when organisers received several complaints and when checking data on the 5 km trackers that monitor whether participants passed through all sections of the marathon, it was found that thousands of runners had not actually completed the entire event.

REALLY...?

- Box Crab: Like so many other sea creatures, the box crab is a master of disguise. In this case, the crustacean — which mostly keeps to the seabed — buries itself beneath the sand, with just its eyes protruding from the mucky depths. One of the most fascinating aspects of the box crab's life cycle is its mating habits, which literally redefine what it means to be swept off your feet. When the male box crab has found its mate, it grasps onto her with its claws and carries her around the sea floor until she molts her shell.*

Frequent UGD pipeline blockage in Kuvempunagar

Sir,

I have been residing in Kuvempunagar locality since 1985. This letter is mainly focused to address the frequent blockage of UGD pipeline in 9th Cross, Navilu Road, A-B Block, Kuvempunagar.

Drainage blocking is frequent in our locality (9th Cross Navilu Road) and have lodged a number of complaints regarding this problem through MUDA complaint cell (+91-94498 41196). At times our requests are attended to but many times they do not turn up.

We feel that the technical / laying work carried out in our road is not proper. The drainage chambers are not built and the slope for the flow is not maintained which is causing such an inconvenience for all the residents.

This drainage blocking is observed after the Government took up new laying of UGD pipelines in our locality. I had visited the concerned office in Kuvempunagar (Opp. Prerana Hospital) and met the concerned engineer. I discussed with him and conveyed our problems about UGD and he assured me that he will be present during the drainage clearing work. Later he did not turn up.

Since we all are facing the blockage issue frequently, I would like to request our area Corporator to take up the matter as soon as possible and provide a decent service to the tax-paying public.

In this regard, Parisara Balaga has organised the workshop on making clay idols to send a message among people to worship only environmental friendly idols. The workshop will be conducted in three groups in equal number of sessions on Sept. 9 and 10 from 9 am to 12 noon and 2 pm to 5 pm and on Sept. 10, from 9 am to 12 noon.

Karnataka Rajya Shamiana Decoration, Dhwani Mattu Belaku Kshemabhivruddhi Sangha President R. Lakshman addressing the press meet at Dasara Exhibition Grounds here yesterday as others look on.

Mysuru, Sept. 8 (MTY&DM)- The three-day State-level Conference of Karnataka Pandal Owners Federation will take place at Dasara Exhibition Grounds in city from Sept. 10 to 12.

Announcing this at a press meet at Dasara Exhibition Grounds here yesterday, Gangavathi-based Karnataka Rajya Shamiyana Decoration, Dhwani Mattu Belaku Kshemabhivruddhi Sangha President R. Lakshman said that the event is organised under the joint aegis of the Sangha and Mysuru District Pandal Owners Association.

Chief Minister Siddharamaiah will inaugurate the conference which has been organised with the theme 'Mysuru Vaibhava', at 12 noon on Sept. 10. Pre-poll guarantees similar to White Elephants: MGP

MGP meeting debates how five promises made by Congress to grab power is denting State finances

Mysuru, Sept. 8 (SPN&BS)- With several thousands of crores of rupees being spent on the implementation of five pre-poll guarantees announced by the State Government, namely Shakti, Gruha Jyothi, Anna Bhagya, Gruha Lakshmi and Yuva Nidhi (which is yet to be implemented), along with several other schemes, the tax-payers will face an increasing financial burden in the days ahead.

This consensus emerged during the monthly meeting organised by Mysore Grahakara Parishat (MGP) at Yadavagiri in the city recently. The meeting was attended by former employees of Karnataka Power Transmission Corporation Limited (KPTCL), contractors and MGP members.

Many of the participants opined that all the five guarantees will be scrapped after the 2024 Lok Sabha elections. "The Government will stall all development works to fund the guarantees till the Lok Sabha elections and after the polls, these populist schemes will be shelved as it is unrealistic to continue them. But enough damage would have been done to the State finances till the guarantees are withdrawn" they reasoned.

Despite the present State Government completing 100 days in office, there is no mention of any development projects commencing, not even in the media, during this period. Attendees of the meeting expressed concerns that the State may encounter challenging times in the coming days.

MGP Member Bhamy V. Shenoy stated, "The free schemes promised during the pre-election period will severely impact the State exchequer. While it is known that 200 units of power are being supplied to consumers for free, there are concerns about the quality of power supply to those whose electricity consumption exceeds 200 units."

An MGP member elaborated on how the revenue and expenditures of Chamundeshwari Electricity Supply Corporation (CESC) and four other Electricity Supply Companies (ESComs) will be adversely affected due to the implementation of free 200 units of power.

The presentation included a detailed breakdown of expenses, including purchasing power from other States, maintaining coal stock for electricity generation, acquiring raw materials, and covering employee salaries, pensions and other expenses.

The Government's guarantees are already becoming a part-reality, with the cost of each guarantee running into several thousands of crores of rupees per month. In July, hundreds of crores of rupees were allocated to the Transport Corporations under the Shakti Scheme. The MGP members discussed how these five guarantees could be considered 'White Elephants' if continued, as they would significantly impact the State's fiscal condition and burden tax-payers.

The next step for protest or action should be decided only after evaluating the pros and cons of implementing schemes that involve the public. A suggestion was made during the meeting to submit a report to the Government after studying the impact of these guarantees on tax-payers.

MGP members, including retired KPTCL Engineer Sudheendra, Ashwathnarayan, Ravi Palya, Sridhar, industrialist Sreeshaila Ramannavar and others were present at the meeting.

Dasara elephants, staff covered under Rs. 1.98 crore insurance

Forest Department pays a premium of Rs. 56,781 to the insurance company

Dasara elephants marching on the Jumboo Savari route this morning as part of their routine training on the procession route from Mysore Palace to Torchlight Parade Grounds in Bannimantap.

Mysuru, Sept. 8 (MTY&BCT)- The Mysuru Dasara festival of 2023 has commenced in grand fashion, marked by the ceremonial arrival of elephants, the centrepiece of this celebrated event. The festivities have ignited tremendous enthusiasm, signalling the commencement of a month-long extravaganza.

This year, the prestigious role of leading the Jumboo Savari procession has been entrusted to Captain Abhimanyu, featuring a spectacular assembly of 14 elephants, including the distinguished Abhimanyu himself. Among these, 10 are male elephants and 4 are female elephants, all of which have obtained official permission from the Forest Department to participate.

In a thoughtful measure to safeguard against unforeseen risks, a comprehensive temporary insurance policy has been enacted, covering 14 Dasara elephants, 14 Mahouts, 14 Kavadis, 6 specialised Mahouts, the responsible Range Forest Officer (RFO), Deputy RFO, Veterinarian, in-charge assistants and other support staff overseeing the welfare of the elephants.

Accidental damage covered

This insurance policy carries a total value of Rs. 1.98 crore and is in effect from 30.08.2023 till 30.10.2023. The Forest Department has paid a premium of Rs. 56,781 (including GST) to the insurance company as per the Government norms.

Male elephants are insured for a substantial sum of Rs. 5 lakh each, while female elephants are covered for Rs. 4.5 lakh each. Moreover, elephant caretakers, including Mahouts and Kavadis, as well as special Mahouts, cooks, officers, and other associated staff, have each been provided insurance coverage of Rs. 2 lakh.

In the event of any accidental damage to public property during the Dasara festivities, including rehearsals within the Mysore Palace premises and on city streets, an insurance coverage of Rs. 50 lakh will apply. According to the agreement, the claims must be settled within three days, in case of any untoward incidents reported. The insurance policy, administered by New India Assurance Company, encompasses Rs. 50 lakh for the 10 male elephants, Rs. 18 lakh for the 4 female elephants, Rs. 50 lakh for property loss (public liability) and Rs. 68 lakh for the 42 staff members (each insured for Rs. 2 lakhs), amounting to a total of Rs. 1,98,00,000. This policy remains in effect until the elephants return to their forest camps outside Mysuru.

Training begins

Training for the initial batch of Dasara elephants has already commenced, led by Howdah Elephant Abhimanyu. During the initial phase of training, the elephants paraded majestically inside the Mysore Palace yesterday.

The route included roads leading to Kodi Someshwara Temple, Trinayaneshwara Swamy Temple, Gayathri Devi Temple, Varahaswamy Temple, Karikallu Thotti, Brahmapuri Gate and Kote Anjaneyaswamy Temple.

Crocodile spotted in Kukkarahalli Lake

Mysuru, Sept. 8 (BLU&KS)- Morning walkers at Kukkarahalli Lake are a worried lot after spotting a crocodile in the Lake yesterday morning.

Though crocodiles were spotted in the Lake earlier, the Forest Department had rescued them. Later, the walkers, assuming that there were no crocodiles in the Lake, were enjoying their walks without fear. Now, a crocodile was spotted yesterday morning by a walker, who has captured the reptile in the Lake on the mobile phone.

Hundreds of morning and evening walkers take a stroll on the Lake bund everyday and now they fear of the reptile attacking them during their walk. They have urged the Forest Department authorities to take steps to capture the crocodile and relocate it to a safer place, away from human habitat.

New Delhi, Sept. 8- Former Prime Minister Dr. Manmohan Singh has endorsed the Indian Government's position on the ongoing war between Russia and Ukraine. According to reports while speaking to the Press, the former Prime Minister supported India's decision to "put its sovereign and economic interests first," before all else.

Despite immense pressure on India to choose sides, India has done the right thing in putting our country's sovereign and economic interests first while also appealing for peace, he said.

Speaking about India's G20 presidency, the former two-time Prime Minister said he was "glad to witness" India hosting the summit during his lifetime. He added that India's foreign policy has been an important element of India's governance frame.

Asserting that India's standing in the world should "rightfully be an issue in domestic politics," Dr. Singh also called for exercising "restraint in using diplomacy and foreign policy for party or personal politics."

Responding to the question about India's strained relationship with China and President Xi Jinping's decision to skip the G20 summit, Dr. Manmohan Singh termed Xi's decision as "unfortunate" and hoped that PM Modi would take "all steps necessary to protect India's territorial and sovereign integrity and defuse bilateral tensions."

On the challenges ahead for India, the veteran statesman said he is "more optimistic than worried" about the road ahead for India, but cautioned that his optimism is dependent on the nation becoming a harmonious society.

He said his optimism is contingent on India celebrating its diversity which must be preserved.

BJP stages protest against Congress Government

Mysuru, Sept. 8 (BLU&DM)- As part of its Statewide stir in protest against the Congress Government's anti-farmer policies, the City Unit of the BJP staged a demonstration in front of Dr. B.R. Ambedkar Statue in Town Hall premises this morning.

Addressing the protestors, K.R. MLA T.S. Srivatsa lashed out at the Congress Government for releasing Cauvery water to Tamil Nadu at a time when Karnataka was staring at drought.

Accusing the Congress Government of suspending the Centre's direct credit of money to the accounts of farmers under the Pradhan Mantri Kisan Samman Nidhi Scheme, he warned of a severe agitation if the Government continued to release Cauvery water to Tamil Nadu.

Hitting out at the Government for allowing conduct of Mahisha Dasara atop Chamundi Hill next month, Srivatsa said that the BJP would never allow its conduct.

Asserting that there is no tradition or permission for the conduct of Mahisha Dasara in the cultural city of Mysuru, he said that Dasara should be celebrated by worshipping only Goddess Chamundeshwari and sticking to past rituals and traditions.

The BJP would go to any length to stop Mahisha Dasara celebration ahead of Dasara festival, he contended.

He further argued that the celebration of Mahisha Dasara would be a big blow to the sentiments of the majority population. The organisers of Mahisha Dasara can celebrate it only in their homes if they want, he added.

Mayor Shivakumar, former MLA L. Nagendra, BJP leaders Anil Thomas, Kaveesh Gowda and others were present.

Former CM Bommai to visit KRS Dam this afternoon

Meanwhile, former Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai, along with several BJP leaders will visit the KRS Dam near Belagola in Srirangapatna taluk later today in order to have first-hand information about the current water level in the Reservoir and Inflow and Outflow. He will be accompanied by Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha and other BJP leaders of Mysuru.

Won't allow 'Mahisha Dasara' at Chamundi Hill, warns MP Simha

Pratap Simha

Mysuru, Sept. 8 (BLU&BS)- Taking a dig at the plans to organise 'Mahisha Dasara' at Chamundi Hill on Oct. 13, Mysuru-Kodagu MP Pratap Simha has warned to stop the event, no matter even if it turns into a conflict.

Simha, who spoke to media persons at Jaladarshini Guest House premises here this morning, said, "Daily thousands of people visit Chamundi Hill to seek the blessings of the Goddess. The deity exists due to deep-rooted belief among theists and hence the place is called as Chamundi Hill, not 'Mahisha Hill.'

"However, we won't allow Mahisha Dasara celebrations. I will stay put here on that day and no matter even if it leads to a conflict. I won't allow it. Let those who want to celebrate 'Mahisha Dasara', worship Mahisha at their home and pray to be blessed with a son like Mahisha," he said.

"When BJP Government was in power, we had stopped such practices, but I request the District Administration not to give permission for 'Mahisha Dasara'. Earlier when Siddharamaiah was the Chief Minister, the permission had been given to organise Mahisha Dasara," added MP Simha.

'Mahisha Dasara' is celebrated parallel to Nada Habba Dasara by a section of progressive thinkers to change the narrative about demon king Mahishasura (as known in mythology) as a benevolent king.
